Travelling, anything with a history, off the beaten track, hiking, outside living, reading

- What are your latest projects?

Die boekklub, Kyk net due in Jan 2016 / Just finished "Henrietta with Love" @Artscape for the Woman in Humanities festival. Now, WOMAN ALONE, the story of Dannelene Noach. Noem My Skollie _ Feature film due for release 2016, Darynn Joshua 's first feature. Next feature, Meg Rickard's "Shuush", start rehearsals this week. Busy year so far.

- What was your most embarrassing moment?

Im not easily embarrassed. It is what it is...But there have been times when I wish I had thought first before opening my mouth!

- What is your guilty pleasure?

Coffeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee!!!!

- Do you have children/ Pets/ Plants?

My 7 yr old daughter but I really don't want to speak about her, she is too young to be exposed to the media and the world in this way. She doesn't even get to watch TV...

A dog called Liquorice and a cat called Jools..they hate each other!

- What is your favourite and least liked food?

Best : cheese

Worst: brussel sprouts & pronutro

- What is the one thing that no-one knows about you?

I'm not saying, a little bit of mystery is always necessary....lol

- What did you want to be as a child when you grew up?

Honestly? White. It was during Apartheid. I wanted to be fair, have straight hair and light eyes....as soon as I realised it was NOT going to happen...I started embracing who I was. I wear my hair in its natural state, grey and all...even my email address is "Bossikop".

- Do you support any charity, if so, which one and what are they about?

Friends of the Red Cross Children's Hospital- Provide support to the hospital

Philisa Abafazi Bethu Woman's Centre : provides an Emergency Safe House in Lavender Hill.

Unsupported by government, they serve the community and rely on donations. Awesome "uritkyk" aunties that work there!

- Do you have any hidden talent?

No -I'm as boring as hell.

- What dream do you still want to have come true?

Travel the world!

- Do you have a personal challenge that you are presently dealing with or have overcome that you'd like to talk about?

Last year was a difficult one for me. I lost both my stepdad and my father within 3 months of each other. Life after loss...easy for some, difficult for others. Life goes on.

- Are you comfortable talking about your family?

Not my immediate family _ like my husband and daughter....my grandpaernts, mom, aunties and uncles yes, but not my nuclear family. Im very private about that. Thank you for asking.

- Anything else that you'd like us to know about? Area of interest?

Education. Im also a qualified teacher. And Im really good at it! I only formally teach speech and drama at undergraduate level now though.
